Steffie Genevieve is a licensed mental health professional, and offers EFT as an Emotional Freedom Techniques Practitioner. Steffie Genevieve's presentation of EFT in public and private EFT demonstrations and coaching sessions is her personal approach and participating in same is not intended and does not qualify as formal Emotional Freedom Technique (EFT) training.

Presentations on the website, at workshops, etc. are intended to promote awareness of the benefits of learning and applying the Emotional Freedom Techniques (EFT), however while EFT has produced remarkable clinical results, it is considered investigational and is still in the experimental stage therefore, the public must take full responsibility for their use of it.

The information on the website is of a general nature only and is not intended to diagnose, treat, cure, or prevent any disease or disorder. If you have any questions about whether or not to use EFT, consult your physician or licensed mental health practitioner.

While hundreds of thousands of people worldwide including professionals such as; therapists, social workers, psychotherapists, doctors and other health care workers have used EFT with exceptional results and minimal negative side effects, this does not mean that you will not experience any side effects.
